

Enosh Abuya – Executive Director of The Eagles for Life-Kenya

Enosh currently serves as the Executive Director, The Eagles for Life Kenya, and Trainer of trainees – NASCOP Violence against Key Population and Religious Engagement on dialogues Enosh is also National Litigation and Advocacy committee member representing West Kenya and Rift Valley. He holds a degree in Business Administration from Kisii University, and a Diploma in Criminology and Forensic Studies from Kenya Institute of Professional Studies. He is a dynamic, passionate leader and queer activist with 12 years of program experience in LGBTI and sex worker issues in Kenya and Africa. His advocacy revolves around violence prevention, HIV/AIDS, Sexual Reproductive and Health Rights (SRHR) and Policy formulation in Kenya. He is responsible for providing strategic leadership and direction to TEFL-K; lead and direct the implementation of all aspects of all programs and activities; implement and overseeing the long-term goals, strategies, plans, and policies of the organization; and representing the organization to the target community, local and international partners, regulatory authorities, other government agencies and other stakeholders. Enosh is also working with The Advocates for Human Rights Minnesota on joint reports to international human rights mechanisms. As well as working with the University of Minnesota Extension on LGBTI economic development programme in Kenya. Enosh is a member of the Public Interest Legal Clinic and the Network for Public Interest Mobilizer at the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights and Independent Policing Oversight Authority.