Supplemental Declaration of [REDACTED]
In Support of His Application for Asylum

1. My name is [REDACTED]
2. I was born on January [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] Afghanistan.
3. I currently live at [REDACTED]
4. I speak Dari and some English.
5. I am providing this declaration to give some more details about what happened to me in Afghanistan and clear up confusion.
6. When I prepared my first declaration and my Form I-589, I did not have the assistance of an attorney. My cousin was helping me. For that reason, there were some mistakes on my application. I am correcting those mistakes now.
7. I am scared to go back to Afghanistan because I believe the Taliban will hurt or kill me. The Taliban have searched for me and have attacked me already because I worked with Americans [REDACTED]. I do not support the Taliban in Afghanistan.
8. Before I left Afghanistan, I was working for [REDACTED] at the [REDACTED]. I started working there in December [REDACTED] and worked there until I was evacuated from Afghanistan on [REDACTED].
9. I started working for [REDACTED] because I wanted to work with Americans. I had really wanted to work at [REDACTED]. The Americans had a lot of jobs and there were a lot of Afghans working there at [REDACTED]. My [REDACTED] had worked at [REDACTED] before, too, so I also wanted to work there. But there were enough people working there at [REDACTED] already, so I wasn't able to get a job there. So I got a job at the [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]. I really wanted to work with Americans because they follow the law and they give you rights. The Americans were serving us in Afghanistan and I wanted to help them back and serve. It was important to me to help the Americans and what they were trying to do in Afghanistan.
10. The company that I worked for, [REDACTED] had a contract with U.S. [REDACTED].

11. At [REDACTED], I worked as a [REDACTED], which means that I [REDACTED].
12. There were two parts to my job. I [REDACTED] to other places. I also worked in [REDACTED] help to Afghanistan [REDACTED].
13. I worked with more than just U.S. [REDACTED]. The company I worked for had contracts with so many different countries. I worked with [REDACTED] Turkey, the Emirates and Qatar, Afghan Army [REDACTED] etc.
14. The company I worked for, [REDACTED], also had contracts with the [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. I had an ID card that gave me permission to get into the [REDACTED]. It had my name and other information on it (like my father's name). It was a card that not everyone had and it allowed me to get to the [REDACTED].
15. I had a special pass to enter the area where the U.S. personnel with the [REDACTED]. A lot of people didn't have that pass. With that pass, I could be in the area where Americans were.
16. I also had a driving pass from the [REDACTED] at the [REDACTED].
17. My [REDACTED], worked for the army, the Afghan National Army. He had many cards and medals for his work. He was with the Special Forces for a while.
18. My [REDACTED], also previously worked with U.S. forces at the military base in [REDACTED]. He is [REDACTED].
19. People knew that my [REDACTED] and I were related because we both lived [REDACTED]. On our days off, we [REDACTED].

20. On [REDACTED], the Taliban came to my house looking for me and my [REDACTED]. In my first declaration, it sounds like the Taliban only came to my family's house one time looking for me, but they actually came three times that same day. In my previous declaration, I said that the Taliban came to my family home on [REDACTED] but I didn't clarify that they came three times that day. Three different groups of Taliban members came to the house looking for me because of my work with the U.S. army.

21. When the Taliban came to our house that day, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

22. When the Taliban arrived at our house, they asked for me and my [REDACTED], [REDACTED], by name. My family members told the Taliban that they didn't know where we were and they didn't have news about us. My family knew I was [REDACTED], but they didn't tell this to the Taliban,

23. I was not home when the Taliban came to my family's house because I was working [REDACTED]. I didn't go home every day after work. At the [REDACTED] there were rooms there for us to live in. We only had two days off each week—[REDACTED]. That's when I usually went home. All the other days, I stayed and slept and lived at [REDACTED] in the housing there.

24. My [REDACTED], was not at home because he was staying at a friend's house.

25. Three different groups of Taliban members came to my family's house that day. The first group just asked a lot of questions about where my [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and I were.

26. The second group took some of [REDACTED] military belongings and items, like his army coat and some other army-related belongings.

27. The third group asked my [REDACTED] about our whereabouts and because my [REDACTED] would not tell them, the Taliban members hit my [REDACTED] with their gun. One of the Taliban members hit my [REDACTED] with his gun once or twice. The Taliban kept asking my [REDACTED] where we were, and my [REDACTED] kept saying he didn't know and that's when the Taliban member hit my [REDACTED] with his gun. My [REDACTED] was bruised from being hit with the gun.

28. That same day, I got a call from my family telling me what happened. I got a call from my father on my phone, but I missed the initial call. When I called him back using my friend's phone, he told me that the Taliban had come to our house three times and the Taliban was still in the area. He told me what happened, and that he had been hit by the gun and was bruised, but he didn't give me many details that day because we didn't have much time to talk. It was a very brief conversation. It wasn't until later, after I was evacuated from Afghanistan, that my father and I talked about that day, and he gave me more details about what happened.

29. After I talked to my father and learned the Taliban had been to our house, I also sent a message to my father to ask where he was. He called me back and told me to stay in the house.

30. The next day, I left the house with my friend, [redacted], to go to my friend's house to rest for a bit. When we're not working during the week, we can leave for a bit to rest. I was scared to leave the house but I was super tired and just needed to get away from a bit. I was just going to get away for an hour or two to rest at my friend's house. We had to [redacted] after that because we had work to do.

31. On the way back to the house after resting at my friend's house is when the Taliban found me and attacked me on the street. This is the day the Taliban took my ID cards and my telephone. In my previous declaration, it sounds like the Taliban took my phone and identification cards when they came to my house, but I think I just described some things out of order in that declaration. They didn't take my phone and ID cards when they came to my house. They took my things when they attacked me in the street the next day.

32. At first, when my friend and I encountered the Taliban, they didn't know who I was. We were near [redacted]

[redacted]

33. I was very scared when they first stopped me. I was scared they would search me and find the ID card that showed that I worked [REDACTED].

34. Right away when the Taliban stopped me and my friend, they first asked us where we were going. We said we were going to the [REDACTED]. They asked us what we did at [REDACTED]. I said I was going to [REDACTED] because I was working. I said that we worked in a [REDACTED]. It was hard to deny that we were going to [REDACTED] because they knew we were heading that way.

35. The Taliban knew there were American personnel who had a presence at [REDACTED] so after they heard that I worked at [REDACTED] the Taliban started searching me. They found my ID from work and my cellphone. That's when they found out who I was.

36. When they saw my ID, they contacted someone on the radio and told them that they had me. They talked to the person on the radio for about 10 minutes. The person on the radio told the Taliban members to arrest me and bring me to them.

37. After the Taliban members got my ID card and cell phone and were told to arrest us, they told me and my friend to get in the car because they were taking us.

38. I didn't want to get in the car. I wanted to run away. So, I refused to get in the car. When I refused to get in the car, they started hitting me and my friend with guns and pieces of wood. While they were hitting me, my leg got cut by the knife that was attached to the end of their guns. But I refused to get in the car because I knew that if I got in the car, I would be killed.

39. While they were hitting us, I asked them why they wanted us to get in the car. I asked them where they were taking us. They said they were going to take us to ask us some questions and then they were going to take us to jail. But I knew that if I got into the car, I was going to be martyred because there is no Taliban jail.

40. This is when my friend started running away and the Taliban shot him. He was killed by the Taliban.

41. When my friend started running away, the Taliban's attention was diverted from me because they were focused on my friend, so I was able to get away by disappearing into the crowd.
42. I ran back to [REDACTED] recognized me and let me inside. Someone there helped me clean the cut on my leg and take care of it. There is a little scarring still.
43. I did not leave [REDACTED] again after that. I stayed in [REDACTED] from [REDACTED], until the day I was evacuated.
44. My family had warned me that after coming to the house three times on [REDACTED], the Taliban were still in the area, so I knew it was not safe for me to go back home.
45. Thankfully, I was evacuated from Afghanistan on [REDACTED]. I was allowed to get on one of the planes in the airport to leave Afghanistan.
46. My [REDACTED] [REDACTED], was scared to stay in Afghanistan, too, so he also needed to escape from Afghanistan. Not long after I left Afghanistan, he escaped from Afghanistan and is currently [REDACTED]
47. After I left Afghanistan, (but I'm not sure exactly when), the Taliban sent a paper to my [REDACTED] asking to talk to me and my [REDACTED]. But it was very obvious what they would do to us if we went to talk to them. They don't threaten you in those papers because they want to encourage you to show up and talk to them, but then if you show up, once you are in their hands, they treat you way different. They are totally different people.
48. On [REDACTED], after I was in the United States, some Taliban members came to a hotel near the [REDACTED] looking for me. Even though I was in the United States, the Taliban didn't know where I was. They didn't know that I had left, so they were still looking for me. That's why they went looking for me at the hotel, to try to find me. They went looking for me at the hotel because my [REDACTED] at the hotel and it was [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
49. The Taliban didn't do anything to anyone else at the hotel. They were just asking my [REDACTED], about me and about where I was. My [REDACTED] just kept saying "I don't know where [REDACTED] is."

50. I found out that the Taliban had gone to the hotel looking for me because my [REDACTED], told me. When I had arrived to the United States, I got a phone and I made calls to [REDACTED] in Afghanistan to update him and get information from him. So, he had my phone number. After the Taliban came to the hotel looking for me, [REDACTED] called me to tell me.
51. I am scared to go back to Afghanistan because my [REDACTED] was in the military and my [REDACTED] is here in the United States. My [REDACTED] was in the military and [REDACTED] used to work in [REDACTED] in the military base. The big reason they will hurt me is because I was in [REDACTED] because I was helping Americans, giving them [REDACTED]. The Taliban will kill me because I helped Americans, so it is not safe for me there. They will kill me because they believe I help Americans.
52. If I go back to Afghanistan, the Taliban has my ID card and they have my photo, so it is very obvious that they will find me. They won't even have to look for me in the village because they will just capture or arrest me in the airport when I arrive. They know who I am because they took my ID card. (They took a different ID than the ones I have provided with my application. The other ID card was very important and gave me permission to go to the [REDACTED] side of the [REDACTED])
53. The Taliban does not like the Americans because the Taliban had war with the Americans and the Americans have bombarded them a lot. The Taliban was telling people not to work with the Americans.
54. I do not support the Taliban. The Taliban is an occupier group. They are not treating people well. Americans were helping people there in Afghanistan and helping the Afghan government to stop the Taliban from taking over our government. The Taliban do not treat people well and kill people over a very small reason. I was happy the Americans were helping us and not letting the Taliban treat people bad or take over the country. I do not support the Taliban and that's why they want to hurt me. I am opposed to the Taliban being in Afghanistan.

I declare the above statement is true and correct to the best of my memory and knowledge under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States.

[REDACTED]

Supplemental Declaration of [REDACTED]
In Support of [REDACTED] Application for Asylum

This declaration was prepared the following way. With the help of an interpreter, I spoke with [REDACTED] attorney. I answered her questions and explained what happened to me and my family in Afghanistan. She wrote down my answers and organized them into this declaration. When it was finished, an interpreter read the entire declaration back to me in Dari/Farsi. I made any necessary corrections and after I confirmed it was all true and correct, I signed it.

1. My name is [REDACTED]
2. I was born on July [REDACTED], in [REDACTED]
3. I am currently living in [REDACTED] which is a part of [REDACTED]. I am working in a fruit orchard. I am not close to the city. We are far from the city.
4. I speak Farsi or Dari.
5. I speak some English because I have worked with U.S. Special Forces for a very long time. Every time we went on a mission, we were speaking English to each other.
6. I am the [REDACTED] [REDACTED].
7. It is very hard to remember dates because there was so much chaos in Afghanistan before I left, and these were very bad times for us.
8. I previously made a declaration for my [REDACTED] asylum application. Our cousin, [REDACTED] helped me prepare that document. I wrote down some things in Dari and I spoke to [REDACTED] about the things in the declaration, and then he wrote the statement for me in English based on what I had told him. I sent some documents from when I was working with the Special Forces and pictures of that time.
9. We worked on the declaration together. [REDACTED] did most of the work writing it down, but we combined our work together to write it.
10. After we finished talking about everything in Dari, [REDACTED] translated the document into English and sent it over to me through email. I printed it out, signed it, sent a photo, and sent it back to [REDACTED] over email. When [REDACTED] helped me with that declaration, I understood everything. Everything was explained to me, and I understood everything that was in the declaration when I signed it. [REDACTED] read everything to me in English and Dari and I knew exactly what I was signing.

11. I was in the Afghan Army for a long time. When I first joined, I was a sergeant. Then, over the last [REDACTED] years, I reached the rank of Captain. I was with the Afghan Army for [REDACTED] years. For [REDACTED] years, I was studying in the army and then I had [REDACTED] years working with them.
12. I was a company commander with the Afghan Army, so I worked with U.S. Special Forces for a very long time. We were always going on missions with special forces for [REDACTED] years.
13. I have very good memories from that time. I was with the Afghan army, but we worked with U.S. army all the time. We were conducting combined missions.
14. I was still in the Afghan Army in [REDACTED] before the Taliban took Kabul. Before the Taliban took Kabul, I was in the [REDACTED] area in an Afghan national army division. [REDACTED] is a huge area, a huge military camp, that has many different parts. There is an [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I was part of the Army [REDACTED] with the Afghan National Army. My headquarters was located in [REDACTED] but we had missions in other parts of [REDACTED]. I was working in [REDACTED] but they were sending me to different locations, like [REDACTED], and other parts of [REDACTED]. Sometimes I would sleep in our [REDACTED] and sometimes I slept after missions in [REDACTED], an area in [REDACTED] where we had a battalion, which is smaller than our division headquarters.
15. My family's home was in [REDACTED] a district in [REDACTED]. We had an orchard and farmland there. Our village name is [REDACTED], our district is [REDACTED] and our province is [REDACTED].
16. My mother, my father, my sister, and my wife lived there at the house in [REDACTED] wife had lived in this house, as well, at times. But I almost always lived, worked and slept in army camps. For the past [REDACTED] years, while I have been in the army, I would seldom be at home, except for a couple nights between missions when I was able to go home.

17. In August 2001, Ahmed and his wife weren't there at my family's house. Ahmed mostly lived at the apartment where he worked, and his wife had gone to stay at her father's house.
18. In August 2001, I was with my battalion in Herat, Afghanistan, when my battalion commander ordered me not to fight because the Taliban had taken over and the President of Afghanistan and Defense Secretary had fled Afghanistan. So that's when the Afghan Army stopped fighting. I had to leave my weapon there and go to my friend's house in Kabul, where I hid. I didn't go to my own house. I left my battalion and went directly to my friend's house. I changed into civilian clothes and hid there for a while. The reason I went to my friend's house is because I knew I was safe there. I didn't go to my own house because I knew I wasn't safe there because everyone in my area knew I was working for the army.
19. When the Taliban came to the house that day, on August 16, 2001, the Taliban were looking for both of us, Ahmed and me.
20. The Taliban actually came to our house three times that day, not just once. I don't really know why my first declaration doesn't mention that the Taliban came to my house three times. There must have been some confusion between me and Ahmed since the Taliban came to the house three times on the same day. But the truth is that the Taliban came to our family house three times on August 16, 2001. Three different groups of Taliban members came to our family home that day.
21. When the Taliban came to my family's house, they asked my family, "Where are they? Where are they?" They mentioned my name and Ahmed's name specifically and they told my father, "When we find them, we will punish them."
22. They even beat my father that day because he told them he didn't know where we were, and they told my father he was lying. They hit my father with a weapon three times. Two or three times they hit him when they were looking for us, on his back and on his shoulder. I didn't see my father, but my wife told me about it when she called me.
23. One of the times the Taliban came to the house that day, they were looking for things and they saw my military clothes and other items that I had there. They took my clothes and said they would find me.

24. Only my mother, my father, my sister and my wife were living there at the time. [REDACTED] and I weren't home when the Taliban came to our house because it wasn't safe there for us. Because [REDACTED] worked in the [REDACTED] helping [REDACTED] he stayed there at [REDACTED] when everything happened because he was safe there since there were still coalition forces there. I was hiding in my friend's house for a while. My friend's house is in [REDACTED] inside [REDACTED] near [REDACTED]. So we weren't there when the Taliban came to our family house.
25. Even though I wasn't at home when the Taliban came on [REDACTED] looking for us, I knew about it because my wife was there when the Taliban came. She called me and let me know that the Taliban came and that they were looking for me and my [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. She told me that me and my [REDACTED] should not come home because the Taliban were looking for both of us. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] also contacted me and told me that the Taliban had come to the house looking for me and [REDACTED]. Either my wife or [REDACTED] called me after each time the Taliban came.
26. I think [REDACTED] also called [REDACTED] to tell him about the Taliban coming to the house. I think he told [REDACTED] not to come home and told him that the Taliban hit him. [REDACTED] and I didn't have the chance to talk to each other very often. We usually only communicated through other family members. But, sometimes we called each other. We weren't in the same location but sometimes we all talked together over the phone.
27. It wasn't a good day. It was a very bad day. Everyone was worried about themselves. I did call [REDACTED] after the Taliban came to our family house, and he told me he was in [REDACTED]. I told him to stay where he was because it was safer than other places. Then I told him I was in my friend's house. I talked to him about once or twice.
28. Every time the Taliban came to our house, they were asking for [REDACTED] and me. I think the Taliban knew that we were both involved with and helping the U.S. and cooperating with the U.S. against the Taliban.
29. In the years when I was working with Special Forces, we captured a couple hundred Taliban, and we were conducting operations with U.S. special forces. I have a very sad memory from that time. My friends from U.S. forces were wounded and I lost a lot of Afghan friends in this war against the enemy. We were capturing them during the night in a night raid and sending them to prison, some sentenced to prison for 20 years. That's why they were looking for me. Some of the Taliban we had imprisoned for a long time. When they were released, they came looking for us.

30. Before the Taliban took over, [REDACTED] was working [REDACTED] with coalition forces and Afghan police. His job was to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] as well. The Taliban knew this. They knew he was working at [REDACTED] and working with Americans.
31. These are the reasons why they were looking for me and [REDACTED]. And they are still looking for people like us. The Taliban has very strong intelligence information. They identified a lot of people working with the military and coalition forces. I heard they had a list of people who worked with U.S. coalition forces. I don't know exactly how they found out that [REDACTED] worked [REDACTED], but I've heard they have very strong intelligence. The Taliban are looking for people who they think are very important—military people, people who cooperated with the U.S. They are looking for people like me and [REDACTED] because they know what we did and who we worked with. They identify the United States as the enemy and if you worked with the enemy, they are looking to kill you.
32. Even though the Taliban did not find [REDACTED] when they came to our house, they did attack him in the street on [REDACTED] 15, 2001. He had been [REDACTED] [REDACTED] but he was tired of being there. I had warned him not to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] because it was the safest area for him, but he got so tired of being in [REDACTED] that he left. He and his friend were retuning to [REDACTED] after going to his friend's house when they faced the Taliban. [REDACTED] was beaten or hurt in the leg or the foot. When [REDACTED] was fighting with the Taliban, they took one of his ID cards related to his work. In the middle of this process, they knifed him in the foot and shot his friend. Unfortunately, [REDACTED] did not survive the bullet. My [REDACTED] told me his friend was killed by a bullet. At that time [REDACTED] took the opportunity to run into the crowds and escape them.
33. Of course, it wasn't that easy for [REDACTED] to escape from the confrontation, but of course as you know, it was very crowded [REDACTED]. When he had a chance, he escaped and ran into the crowds. He got himself [REDACTED] [REDACTED] by showing his ID and they knew it was the right person and they got him some help for his foot injury.

34. I found out about that incident later when I talked to [REDACTED] I called [REDACTED] to check on him but he did not answer, so I was really worried. But then [REDACTED] called me from his friend's home and told me what happened. [REDACTED] told me that he had left [REDACTED] and gotten beaten. I heard about his friend getting killed and I got angry with him for leaving [REDACTED] where it wasn't safe. I encouraged him to [REDACTED] because it was the safest place.
35. I know that [REDACTED] left Afghanistan on an evacuation flight to the United States on [REDACTED], because we were calling each other to check in on each other. That's how I knew he was going to get on a plane to the U.S. Until that moment, I did not know he was getting on a plane. He didn't even know when he was getting on a plane. He probably got a call eventually to get evacuated.
36. When [REDACTED] was evacuated, I was still at my friend's house in [REDACTED] because I was scared of everything. I had worked 20 years in the military, so I was staying in my friend's house and hiding. My documents are a lot stronger than [REDACTED] so if I had only been able to get to the airport I would have been evacuated, too.
37. After [REDACTED] made it to the United States, I was glad he was safe. I felt like I didn't need to worry about him anymore. So not long after [REDACTED] left Afghanistan is when I made my move out of my friend's house to Iran. I needed to leave Afghanistan because I was still very worried about my safety.
38. After everything settled down in [REDACTED] and the Taliban were settled, I took the opportunity to make myself low key. I met an Afghan family going to [REDACTED] and kind of stayed with them to hide myself while crossing the [REDACTED]
39. On [REDACTED] the Taliban came to a hotel in [REDACTED] and were searching for [REDACTED] They came there searching for [REDACTED] because it's the hotel [REDACTED] went there all the time for dinner or for lunch. It was a place to hang out with his friend. [REDACTED] The Taliban has a lot of intelligence forces. They are very smart. There are lots of informers around Kabul and everywhere. The informers would tell the Taliban that [REDACTED] and his friends hung out at the hotel for lunch and for dinner, so that's why the Taliban went there looking for [REDACTED], I think.

40. I found out about this incident because the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] was in the U.S. already at this time. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] to tell him that the Taliban came to the hotel looking for him. Later [REDACTED] told me about what had happened and I called the manager to talk to him about it [REDACTED]. I called to get more information about what had happened.

41. I have no idea what's happening with my family back home. Every time I call, they tell me they are ok, but I'm not sure if they're just saying that because they want to keep me calm. I miss my wife the most.

42. I had to leave Afghanistan to go to [REDACTED] because, well, I have no chance if I stayed, and I couldn't stay too long hiding because I'm a human. I needed to leave the house. I was looking for any chance to leave and get to [REDACTED] from Afghanistan [REDACTED]. I could've gotten captured, tortured, or killed.

I declare the above statement is true and correct to the best of my memory and knowledge under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States.

PICTURE DESCRIPTIONS FROM [REDACTED]

Pictures 1 & 2:

These pictures show me (as an Afghan Commando) with two members of the U.S. Special Forces: Major [REDACTED] (he was Captain at the time) on the right and [REDACTED] on the left with me in the middle. We were in the [REDACTED] conducting missions together. I believe this picture was taken [REDACTED]

Picture 3:

This picture shows me with [REDACTED] We were near a cave where we found Taliban weapons/ammunition. This was about [REDACTED] I believe.

Picture 4:

This picture shows [REDACTED] interpreter, and my NCO (non-commission officer). I was there at the time, too, but I am not shown in the picture.

This picture was taken at the same time at picture 3. We were talking about how to safely eliminate the weapons and ammunition we found in the cave in picture 3.

Pictures 5 & 6:

These pictures show a meeting with my forces, U.S. special forces, a medic, and an interpreter before going out on a mission.

Before we went on the mission, we were talking about plans, like what we should do if someone gets wounded (like how to apply a tourniquet and how to take a wounded person to the medic).

Picture 7:

This picture shows me and a U.S. interpreter. I was talking to my soldiers about conducting a mission, passing along information given to me by U.S. special forces.

Picture 8:

This picture shows a time when we found a lot of Hashish in a house on a mission in Afghanistan. There is one of my solders inside the house, one of my soldiers outside the house with a radio, an American soldier, and an Afghan who was arrested there.

Picture 9:

This picture shows the U.S. Special Forces bringing us night vision and explaining to us how to use it.

Pictures 10 & 11:

These pictures are from [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. They also show the U.S. Special Forces training my forces on how to use night vision.

Picture 12:

This picture shows [REDACTED] with two American soldiers training my soldiers on how to handcuff the enemy with plastic handcuffs, as well as how to search the enemy.

Picture 13:

This picture shows one American soldier, three of my soldiers. Most of the time during the missions, there were three Afghan soldiers with one U.S. soldier. In this picture, they were talking about conducting missions.

Pictures 14 & 15:

These pictures show medals I have received during my service time. One of the six medals on page 14 is the most important one. It was given to me by a [REDACTED] Commander. He came to [REDACTED] with three helicopters and gave me that medal for rescuing a [REDACTED] soldier.

The other medals are from U.S. Captains or people who were conducting operations with me. They gave me those medals for good coordination I had with them during the operations, good teamwork, conducting the operations the way they were explaining to me, and doing a great job.
