

Table of contents

Acknowledgments	x
Preface	xiv
Table of Acronyms	xv
Chapter One. Executive Summary	1
Background	4
Setting the Stage for Conflict	5
A Human Rights and Humanitarian Crisis: Liberia 1979-2003	9
The Diaspora Experience	12
Overview of Recommendations from Diaspora TRC Statements	16
Chapter Two. Priority Recommendations	21
Addressing the Immediate Needs of Victims	24
Addressing the Immediate Needs of Refugees and the Displaced	24
Addressing the Immediate Needs of Special Populations	25
Ensuring Civil and Political Rights Are Guaranteed Immediately	25
Ensuring Justice and Ending Impunity	26
Addressing Corruption	27
Ensuring Economic and Social Rights and Development	27
Implementation of TRC Recommendations	28
Taking Steps toward Reconciliation	28
United States & International Community Action	29
Chapter Three. Diaspora Project Overview and Methods	33
History and Goals	35
Management and Operation	36
Pre-implementation Considerations	38
Project Activities and Methodologies	41
Chapter Four. Background on Liberia and the Conflict	49
Geography and Peoples	50
Key Features of Liberian Culture	52
Historical Overview	53
Root Causes of the Conflict	58
Chapter Five. Human Rights Abuses During the Rice Riots and Doe Era	81
Rice Riots and Aftermath: 1979-1980	83
Samuel K. Doe Era: 1980-1989	85
Chapter Six. Tactics and Fighting Factions During the Liberian Civil War	109
Combatants and Fighting Forces	111
Communications and Information Gathering	118
Manipulation of the Media	121
Chapter Seven. Liberia's First Civil War: 1989 – 1997	127

NPFL Invasion: December 24, 1989	129
Rise of the Independent National Patriotic Front of Liberia (INPFL)	140
First Battle for Monrovia: July 1990	143
Deployment of ECOMOG	149
“Operation Octopus:” October 1992	154
Rise of Other Factions	158
Akosombo Agreement: 1994	162
Abuja I: August 1995 and the April 6, 1996 War	165
Abuja II: August 1996	168
Chapter Eight. Liberia’s Second Civil War: 1997 – 2003	181
Background: The Election of Charles Taylor	183
Camp Johnson Road: September 1998	188
LURD Invasion: September 2000	190
“World Wars I, II, and III:” Summer 2003	192
Rise of MODEL	193
Chapter Nine. Child Soldiers	201
Demographic Characteristics of Child Soldiers	204
Recruitment of Child Soldiers	206
Experiences of Child Soldiers	209
Chapter Ten. Women	225
Pre-existing Factors: The Role of Women in Liberian Society	228
Gender-Based Violence during the Conflict	234
Gender-Based Violence in Flight from the Conflict	246
Displacement	247
Impact of Sexual Violence	247
Status of Women in Liberia Today	252
Chapter Eleven. Complicating Factors	263
External Actors	265
Conflict Resources	269
Chapter Twelve. Role of the United States	283
Our Fair Share: U.S. Commercial Interests in Liberia	286
“The Height of U.S. Involvement:” Military and Foreign Policy Expediency	287
“Betrayed Twice:” U.S. Omissions during the Civil War	289
Chapter Thirteen. “Everyone Scattered:” Experiences of the Liberian Diaspora	301
Flight	303
Refuge	320
Buduburam Refugee Settlement - Life in Limbo	327
Refugee Resettlement in the United States	337
Asylum	338
Temporary Protected Status	340
Life after Resettlement	342
Damaging the Fabric of Liberian Society: Ongoing Impact of the War	361
“A House with Two Rooms”	367

The Return	374
Chapter Fourteen. Recommendations Submitted to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Liberia	399
Introduction	401
Liberia’s International Legal Obligations	402
Section I. Reparations for Affected Individuals and Communities	405
Section II. Recommendations Related to Refugees in the West African Sub-Region	425
Section III. Civil and Political Rights	429
Section IV. Ending Impunity for Violations 1979-2003	445
Section V. Corruption	453
Section VI. Economic, Social and Cultural Rights	456
Section VII. Non-discrimination Measures Related to Minorities and Women	465
Section VIII. Implementation and International Support	477
Section IX. Recommendations Related to Liberians Residing in the United States	486
Conclusion	496
Appendices
A. Commissioners of the Liberian TRC	513
B. International Law and Liberian International Legal Obligations	519
C. Protections for Refugees in International Law	551
D. Key Events in Liberian History from 1979 to 2003	565
E. TRC Diaspora Project Memorandum of Understanding	573
F. Listing of Pro Bono Management and Advisory Committee Members	585
G. Lessons Learned from the Diaspora Project	589
H. Descriptive Statistics for Statement Givers in the Diaspora	597
I. Public Hearings Witnesses by U.S. State of Residence	603
Photo Legend	606